APPEAL FOR FLOODLIGHTS

Didcot football team wants new home with floodlights on the Great Western Park estate

A SUNDAY league football team wants a permanent home on new pitches to be built on Great Western Park.

Great Western Park FC, formerly the Chatsworth Buccaneers, want to play their home games at Boundary Park.

The park is due to be built on the new 3,300-home estate by 2015.

But the team, who play in the third division of the Upper Thames Valley League, needs floodlit pitches to train during the winter.

The team currently trains at Edmonds Park during the summer, and during the winter they have hired out facilities at Didcot Girls' School and the Abbey Sports Centre in Berinsfield.

Having played the majority of their home games in Garsington for the last four years, the team wants to play in their own backyard and see Great Western Park as a perfect opportunity.

However, there is currently no provision for floodlights at Boundary Park on the plans.

Dean Pavely, 30, who set up and plays for the team, said: "It would need floodlights. In winter it is dark at 4pm.

"We would like some provisions for training up there. At least a small floodlit pitch."

Dean's father, and club secretary, Ian, 61, added: "They are all Didcot lads and we never get a home game.

"That is why we want to play at Great Western Park.

"We are the only football club to declare that we want to go."

Plans at Boundary Park show two cricket and rugby pitches, and five football pitches – one senior, one under 14 and three under eight.

Didcot Cricket Club and the town's rugby club are also hopeful of playing up at Boundary Park.

Paul Costello, chairman of the cricket club and secretary of the rugby club, said he was also keen to see floodlights installed at Boundary Park.

"Floodlights are something that, if the rugby club move up there, we will be looking to put in, definitely," Mr Costello said.

"It will be a fantastic facility. It has got the potential to be the best cricket and rugby facilities in South Oxfordshire, so it is exciting times.

"We're looking to talk to multiple sports who are interested parties in trying to get the best facilities for Didcot."

A spokesperson for SODC said: "Regarding floodlights, under the current specification there are no proposed floodlights in Boundary Park, however this could be reviewed in future."

Great Western Park FC are also looking for players, particularly a goalkeeper, for next season.

If you are interested in joining email the team at greatwestern-park@aol.com.

Children raise cash for schools

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

CHILDREN in West Oxfordshire raised thousands of pounds for their schools in a cycle challenge in Leafield on Saturday.

Youngsters from Leafield Primary School, Leafield Pre-School, Wychwood Primary School, Finstock Primary School and Ascott under Wychwood Pre-School completed one kilometre laps of a circuit outside the Caterham F1 Team factory in Langley.

Money raised from the day will be used for school projects including a new bike shelter at Leafield Primary School and a training pedal-less balance bike for Leafield Pre-School.

Families and friends watched the 135 children cycle hundreds of laps between them, in what was the second running of the Cycle Leafield event.

As well as cycling, there was a number of other events going on during the day, including stalls, a pedal powered smoothie making machine, and a Caterham F1 car on display.

Event organiser Kath Cochrane said: "We had glorious weather, and the children cycled miles and miles."

"It was a great opportunity for them to cycle without any traffic, and they had a few sharp corners to do, which was really good for them to practice on."

This year's Cycle Leafield was held after the success of the first event last year - which also raised thousands of pounds.

Kath added: "I think the cycling went better than last year, and we raised a hearty amount for the community."

"One of the Leafield children cycled 29km in an hour and three quarters, and many were lapping at a similar rate."

"Caterham again let us use their centre, so we had teas, a raffle, barbecue and a bouncy castle, which everyone enjoyed."

Cycle Leafield is expected to make a return in 2016 after a one year break next year.

Man punched in face after cracking joke

BRITISH Transport Police officers have launched an investigation after a man who jokingly asked passengers to show him their tickets was punched twice in the face.

The incident took place on a train travelling from London Paddington to Didcot Parkway shortly after midnight on April 18.

The victim had been walking through the train asking to see tickets, with the majority responding in good humour.

But one man, who officers are now looking for, punched the victim, breaking his glasses as a result.

PC David McNelis, investigating the assault, said: "This was a nasty attack which left the victim with cuts to his face.

"We have examined CCTV footage of the incident and are issuing images of a man we would like to speak to in connection with the assault."

"Footage from cameras at Didcot Parkway station shows the suspect leaving the train with a woman in a pink blouse shortly after 1.15am."

Anyone with information is asked to contact British Transport Police on 0800 405040, or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Rave arrest

SUTTON COURTENAY: A 20-year-old man was arrested on Harwell Road, Sutton Courtenay, on May 16 after police received intelligence that a rave was being held.

The man was arrested on suspicion of conspiracy to cause a public nuisance.

Thames Valley Police also arrested a 48-year-old man on suspicion of obstructing or resisting a constable and was given a caution.

130 houses

WALLINGFORD: Plans to demolish a former Habitat store and build more than 130 homes in Wallingford were approved at a South Oxfordshire District Council meeting last week.

Lightwood Property applied to build 94 homes and 40 care homes as well as 2,610sqm of commercial building.

Wallingford Town Council objected on the basis that it would reduce current employment land.

Town councillor Bernard Stone said: "With all the pressure that is on for more housing it was almost inevitable that it went through."

Protest against badger cull through county

PROTESTORS against badger culling pass through Oxfordshire this weekend in a walk from Gloucester to London.

They call the Government policy to control badger numbers 'brutal and barbaric'.

The group of 12 start their 112 mile Great Badger Trail in Gloucester today and will arrive at Cornmarket Street in Oxford on Sunday.

Author and ecologist Hugh Warwick is due to make a speech.

Ama Menec, who is taking part in the walk, said: "The idea had me jumping around the room with glee at the prospect of having a march from Gloucester to London."

"People out there think that the badger cull is all over now but we know it's not.

"We are a small army but as we move across the country we will grow and grow."

Oxfordshire is on the edge of the tuberculosis buffer zone, so badger culling is not expected to take place in the county at the moment.

Anti-cull campaigner Dominic Dyer, of the Badger Trust, said: "This is a fantastic protest which shows the determination, spirit and commitment of normal people who are completely opposed to this shameful cull."

"Hopefully many people will tag along and show the government what England really thinks about this unscientific and unnecessary cull."

They are due to arrive in London on May 31.

Concerns over cost of Hadden Hill project

DIDCOT Town Council leader Eleanor Hards has attempted to quash fears that turning land at Hadden Hill into a sports facility will be a repeat of the over-expenditure that surrounded the Civic Hall.

The council plans to purchase and prepare 25 acres of land at Hadden Hill, off the A4130, which could cost around £1million, to address a shortfall of sports facilities and pitches.

Great debate was had at an extraordinary town council meeting on April 28, but coun-

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

cillors voted 12 votes to eight in favour of supporting the purchase.

However, a Didcot resident has since approached the Oxfordshire Guardian with concerns that Hadden Hill could cost taxpayers more money than first thought.

Acquiring the land could mean repayments of around £60,000 a year over a 50-year-period.

Glyn Hall, who lives in Barleyfields, Didcot, fears a repeat of the revamp of the Civic Hall in 2012, which cost £500,000 more than the town council originally estimated.

Mr Hall raised the issue at the annual town meeting at the Civic Hall on May 7.

He said: "I got all this nonsense about it's the first land that has come up for 10 years.

"It is not the responsibility of the town council, because they have got to be accountable.

"Not one of them stood up and said they were accountable.

"If this goes wrong like the Civic Hall, will the councillors pay for it? We are paying for their mistakes."

When asked if the Hadden Hill project was in danger of the same fate, Cllr Hards said: "I would very much hope not.

"With the Civic Hall, the problems were really caused by the upgrade to the existing building.

"Until people started finding problems that were either there from the start or had developed over the years we didn't know precisely what we were dealing with.

"Starting with a virgin piece of land is a rather different proposition.

"I can understand why people might feel nervous, but they are not really comparable."

Wantage-based BHP Harwood LLP were appointed as architects to take the Hadden Hill project to the planning determination stage at a Finance and General Purposes meeting on Monday.

Burglaries

DIDCOT: Jewellery and electrical items have been stolen from three Didcot homes in a series of burglaries.

Properties in Lydalls Road and Wantage Road were burgled between May 12 and 13.

The burglary on Lydalls Road occurred between 9am and 6pm on May 12.

Between 10am and 1pm on May 13, offenders gained entry to two properties on Wantage Road.

A man was seen walking along Wantage Road from the Co-op in the direction of the town centre just before midday on May 13.

He appeared to put on blue gloves while looking at one of the burgled homes.

Det Con Georgina Bradley, said: "We are linking these burglaries due to the location and the fact they were committed during the day and over a two day period."

Anyone with information should call 101.

Diesel Gala

DIDCOT: The town's Mayor, Scott Wilgrove, will be at Didcot Railway Centre's Diesel Gala this weekend to train as a guard.

Cllr Wilgrove will be at the museum on Saturday and Sunday to learn operational and safety duties.

The centre was chosen as Cllr Wilgrove's chosen charity when he was elected on May 12.

Bank holiday fun with annual Harwell Feast

• Scenes from Harwell Feast over the last few years (Pictures courtesy of Harwell Feast)

HARWELL Feast returns for another year of local tradition and fun this Bank Holiday Monday.

Revellers will be treated to a parade, local stalls, a dog show, go-karting, reenactments, and a hot air balloon.

Mike Badcock, chairman of the Vale of White Horse District Council, will open proceedings on the day.

A parade through the village will start at 11am with the Abbey Brass Band and they will be followed by veteran cars, tractors, bicycles and motorbikes.

The May Queen will also be in the parade and will be escorted in an open top vintage car, while there will also be floats from Harwell School and the Women's Institute.

Morris Dancers and the Marquess of Winchester's Regiment of the English Civil War will also be in the parade to entertain the crowds.

After, there will be a fairground, stalls, go-karting and much more, in the recreation ground.

Gareth Buxton, chairman of the Harwell Feast committee, said: "It is a very old tradition in the village and has been almost continuous since the 1950's.

"Last year we had lots of people, upwards of 3,000.

"We are hoping to get a lot more this year, the more the merrier!"

For more information about the event, go to their website: harwellfeast.com.

Residents go to polls for council elections

BOB Price, Labour leader of Oxford City Council:

"We're pretty confident about most of the seats that we currently hold and we would quite like to add to it."

"We gained our 30th seat by winning a by-election in North ward, that was an important target for us, and we are keen to try and extend by winning in Headington and St. Margaret's."

CRAIG Simmons, leader of the Green group on Oxford City Council:

"Support for the Greens remains strong in Oxford and people are recognising that it is good for democracy to have an active opposition to the Labour-run city council."

"We have proven that we can constructively engage on a wide range of issues, from social housing, local economy, budget-setting and environmental policy."

Thousands of people are expected to vote today in the Oxford City Council, West Oxfordshire District Council and Cherwell District Council elections. Jack Johnson and Adam Flinn look into the make-up of the current councils and why it is important to vote.

TODAY'S local elections give residents the chance to have their say on who is making the big decisions on their behalf.

The district and city councils are responsible for running services such as planning, housing, environmental health, electoral registration, refuse collection, leisure and parks, markets and fairs, tourism and cemeteries.

They have the final say on, for instance, new developments within the city's boundaries and improving the local facilities.

The city council is currently under Labour control, with 30 seats to the Liberal Democrat's 12 and Green Party's five. Independent Mick Haines holds the other seat.

Today voters will decide on the future of half of the city council's 48 members, with the other 24 up for election in 2016.

West Oxfordshire District Council is controlled by the Conservatives, who have a total of 37 councillors, alongside four Labour, four Liberal Democrat and two independents. There are currently two vacancies.

A total of 17 seats will be contested today, alongside all of the seats on 17 town parish councils in the district.

Cherwell District Council has 50 representatives, made of 41 Conservatives, five Labour, three Liberal Democrats and one independent.

Fifteen councillors will be up for election, after Conservative candidate Timothy Hallchurch was elected unopposed for the Otmoor ward.

Residents can vote between 7am until 10pm while the location of polling stations is printed on poll cards.

Votes will be counted tomorrow, and the results announced during the course of the day.

TIM Emptage, leader of the Liberal Democrats on Cherwell District Council:

"Obviously we're fighting to win in every single standing, but the two we're most confident of are the two that we're holding in Kidlington."

"I've always noticed that most investment in this area is directed towards Bicester and Banbury. For the last for years I've argued for, and will continue to argue for, a fair share of investment for Kidlington."

RICHARD Langridge, Conservative cabinet member on West Oxfordshire District Council:

"We always work very hard, and we're obviously very hopeful for some good results."

"What I'm hoping for is however people vote in the European elections, in the district elections they will realise that it's about local issues, and voters will take this into account."

European Parliament seats up for grabs in South East

OXFORDSHIRE residents are also set to vote in the European Parliament elections today.

The city is within the South East region, which, as well as Oxfordshire, covers Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Hampshire, Kent, Surrey and Sussex.

Voters will elect a total of 10 members to the European Parliament out of 119 candidates who have put their names forward.

Among those is UK Independence party leader Nigel Farage who is already an MEP.

The other nine South East MEP's are Daniel Hannan, Richard Ashworth, Sharon Bowles, Keith Taylor, Njri Deva, Marta Andreassen, James Elles, Peter Skinner and Catherine Bearder.

When voting residents will be asked to choose one party. Details of where to vote will be printed on polling cards.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Josh Flory feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and Josh is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.' So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Josh a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Money stolen in city charity shop burglary

THIEVES have stolen a safe and caused considerable damage to a charity shop in Headington.

CLIC Sargent's shop on London Road was broken into on Monday evening, with the burglars forcing entry into the shop before stealing the safe containing the day's takings and a small amount of petty cash.

Jeremy Lune, head of trading at CLIC Sargent, said: "It is incredibly disappointing that the break-in occurred at our shop."

"Every penny raised by the shop helps CLIC Sargent provide vital practical and emotional support to children and young people with cancer, and their families."

"We are saddened that the break-in could detract from this important work."

"However, we don't want this isolated event to overshadow the shop's ongoing success, which is due to the generous support of the local community."

"I would encourage anyone to donate their unwanted goods to CLIC Sargent which will be sold to raise money for a fantastic cause."

Anyone with information about the burglary is asked to call 101.

Inquest opened into woman's tragic death

AN INQUEST into the death of an elderly woman hit by a fire engine heading to an emergency call on Cowley Road was opened on Tuesday.

Sultan Begum, 79, who lived nearby on Cowley Road, Oxford, was taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital, Headley Way, Headington, after the incident last Friday.

Mrs Begum died at the hospital later that evening.

An inquest at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court at County Hall, New Road, was opened and adjourned.

A provisional inquest date was set by the coroner for November 4 to start at 11.30am.

The incident at about 3.50pm shut Cowley Road between Shelley Road and Howard Street for about four hours.

The fire engine, based at Rewley Road, Oxford, had been called out to an emergency when it hit Mrs Begum.

She was said to be crossing the road while walking to her sick brother-in-law's house when the accident happened.

Thames Valley Police is currently investigating the incident and confirmed, as the Guardian went to press, that enquiries were still ongoing but nobody had been arrested in connection with the collision.

More than 500 people attended Mrs Begum's funeral on Sunday morning at Central Oxford Mosque in Manzil Way, Cowley. Her body has since been flown to Pakistan for burial.

Cowley Marsh city councillors Sajjad Malik and Mohammed Abbasi attended the funeral.

Cllr Malik said: "It was sad and sombre."

"There were quite a few family members and also a large local Muslim attendance."

"Unfortunately, the day she had the fatal crash she was visiting her brother-in-law, because he has not been well for a while, and sadly she met her death."

Oxfordshire County Council's Fire and Rescue Service issued a statement on Saturday.

It said: "Our thoughts are with her family following this tragic incident."

"The Fire and Rescue Service is co-operating fully with the police investigation."

John reaches a century of donations

A WITNEY milkman who donated his 100th pint of blood earlier this year has been recognised for his efforts by NHS Blood and Transplant.

John Millington, 64, began donating blood back in 1977 after being encouraged to do so by his wife Penny.

He has been working as a Dairy Crest milkman for 27 years, and currently serves customers in the Wychwood area.

John made his landmark donation in February, and says he has no plans to stop yet.

"My wife encouraged me to give blood and I was amazed at how easy and quick it was to do," said John.

"It's nice to know you are doing something useful that will potentially be lifesaving. One pint of blood at a time is nothing to me but could be very important to someone else."

Dominic Sutherland, lead

donor relations manager for the region at NHS Blood and Transplant, said: "We are grateful to Mr Millington for every single donation he has given."

"We hope his achievement inspires other donors to keep giving regularly."

New facilities are eagerly awaited at JR

DOCTORS at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington are eagerly awaiting the construction of the new Cardiology Outpatient and Imaging facilities at the site.

Dr Saul Myerson and Dr Jim Newton are hoping that the new area, next to the Oxford Heart Centre, will mean appointments should be quicker and more comfortable for patients.

It is due to open later this year, allowing hospital staff to perform more scans, collaborate further in research and perform more complex assessments and lifesaving procedures.

Dr Myerson said: "It's going to be such an improvement for our patients. They will now have a bright airy space, comfortable waiting areas and more privacy.

"There will also be more advanced machines bringing the very latest technology available to our patients. It is a very exciting time."

Dr Newton added: "This development is going to transform the way we work and really improve the whole experience for patients."

"I will now be a consultant who is embedded within the department, right next to our technicians, which can only be good for communication and making the whole medical process more efficient."

"We are all very excited about the development, and every time we walk past and hear all the building noise, that excitement builds.

"We are really looking forward to getting in and letting our patients see these new facilities."

The new development has benefitted from numerous donations, including £60,000 from the Doris Field Charitable Trust towards a state of the art 3D heart scanner.

Andrew House, head of major gifts at the NHS Trust, said: "Over the past two years, we have seen a huge amount of fundraising, from dinners and dances to marathons, variety shows and even chessathons. We are incredibly grateful to all those who have worked so hard to help to make this new facility a reality."

Iconic car manufacturer is set for anniversary festival

ABINGDON'S MG Car Club are celebrating 90 years of the historic marque next month, with a two day festival set to take place at Silverstone.

MG90 will see enthusiasts from across the globe gather at the famous race track for a full weekend of motorsport on June 21 and 22.

A 90-year timeline of MGs will also be on display, as well as numerous other attractions that all tell the history of the classic car manufacturer.

The festival is held each year at Silverstone, but the club is hoping this will be the biggest yet to mark the milestone anniversary.

Julian White, MG Car Club general manager, said: "This year more than ever there's a real buzz about it, simply because it's going to be such a big celebration of MG."

"Normally we get around 12,000 visitors coming along, and we see lots of regular faces coming over from America and Australia. It really is an international event."

"Everyone has a story that somehow relates to MG, especially in Abingdon. Everyone knows someone who owned one or someone who worked there, so it's something that just reaches out to people."

For more information or to book tickets, go to mg90.co.uk.

• Thousands of MGs will be on show at Silverstone for MG90 next month

Plans for more housing to be built at Upper Heyford gets the go ahead

A FORMER RAF base that has been approved for housing is set to incorporate a further 60 houses, Cherwell District Council's planning committee agreed last Thursday.

Councillors approved outline planning permission for up to 60 homes and open space on land and buildings in Dow Street, Upper Heyford.

The base had previously been used by the RAF and the US Air Force before ceasing operations in 1994, and has already had planning permission granted for 1,075 homes.

Bob Duxbury, Cherwell's development control team leader, said: "The RAF Upper Heyford base covers approximately 505 hectares in total and this application refers to about 2.81 hectares within that."

"It currently contains 1920s red brick buildings and although the site is a designated conservation area, none of these buildings are listed and already have approval to be demolished."

"By granting permission for 60 new properties to be built in this locality, we will help bring a redundant space back into use while working towards meeting government targets."

As part of the condition of the latest planning consent, 15 of the homes will be marketed as affordable to rent, with another six available on a shared ownership basis.

Concern over mental health service's future

AN OXFORDSHIRE mental health service's future has been thrown into doubt after it was revealed that its funding is set to be withdrawn over the next two years.

The Complex Needs Service, run by the Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust, is facing having its funding from the Department of Health stopped as part of government cutbacks.

Funding would be reduced by 50 per cent in 2014-15, and then by 100 per cent from April next year.

It means that the service's therapy groups in Wallingford, Witney and Adderbury could stop running this year, and the groups in Oxford by the end of next year.

Ken Williamson, from the Keep Our NHS Public Oxfordshire campaign group, said: "It's disastrous."

"The Complex Needs Service is recognised as a nationally important thing, which has now had its funding withdrawn over this year and next."

"Presumably the government thinks that the local mental health services will be in a position to fund it by taking money from somewhere else."

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

"There is considerable disquiet in the service itself, and Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust are wrestling with it at the moment."

A statement from the Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust said: "The Complex Needs Service for people living with personality disorders has been funded directly by the Department of Health for several years."

"Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group and Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust have agreed within the contract negotiations for 2014-15 to a transitional plan for services for people with personality disorders to bring provision into the future."

"The needs of people living with personality disorders are a priority for Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group and Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust."

It added: "Working within difficult financial constraints, we are reviewing our service configurations to deliver the best possible treatments for this client group."

Simon named as fourth baton bearer

OXFORD City Council has announced its fourth baton bearer who will take part in the Queen's Baton Relay, coming to Oxford on June 6.

Simon Price, 18, from Henwood, will join fellow bearers Ian Warland, Juliet Field and Johnny Pemberton in carrying the baton at the Cutteslowe Summer Festival in Sunnymead Park.

The relay forms part of the celebrations for this year's Commonwealth Games, which start in Glasgow on July 23.

Ian Brooke, head of leisure parks and communities at Oxford City Council, said: "This will be a fantastic community event with something for everyone."

"By bringing together cultural, nature and sports activities in one of the city's great parks, Oxford's event will undoubtedly create some great memories and start to inspire people about the Commonwealth Games."

Dame Kelly Holmes, president of Commonwealth Games England, said: "I'm encouraging everyone in Oxford to get involved when the Queen's Baton Relay comes to Cutteslowe."

"Sunnymead Park will be hosting an incredible celebration of sport on June 6 and everyone can join in."

Laurie wants city to be 'world class'

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A NEW manager who will help with the running of the city centre has been appointed.

Laurie Taylor, who is currently the community response team manager with the council, is set to start in her new role on June 30.

The post of city centre manager had been vacant since Gordon Reid stood down from the position in January.

She will control the management for the city centre, as well as coordinating a programme of improved services to benefit shoppers, visitors and businesses.

"I'm delighted to be appointed to this challenging and varied role," said Laurie.

"I am looking forward to representing the world class city of Oxford as a great place to live, work and visit.

"This is an exciting time for the city with the new Westgate Centre progressing well through the planning process, as well as the Oxpens development and station redevelopment being discussed at masterplan

• Bob Price (inset) hopes Laurie Taylor will be beneficial during the Westgate redevelopment stages.

"I'm looking forward to how this role can make a difference."

Bob Price, leader of Oxford City Council, said: "She comes from a very good background and has got some fantastic personal relationship skills, which is ideal for the job.

"It's a very important role for us as we move towards the redevelopment of the Westgate Centre, and there's two very important functions which Laurie has excellent qualities for.

"One is to establish good links with our current retail offer in the city centre, and also to ensure that we maintain the quality of the city centre environment as much as we can."

Graham Jones, spokesperson for ROX (Rescue Oxford) which helps businesses within the city centre, said: "We have to make sure Oxford stays very competitive as a shopping centre.

"I think she's got a lot of challenges ahead, and I would be happy to meet with her, work with her and see what opportunities can be grabbed."

Grants offered to Headington businesses

ORGANISATIONS in Headington are being given the chance to bid for £15,000 of funding, to encourage their employees to leave their car at home and walk, bike or use public transport to get to work.

It is part of Oxfordshire County Council's Travel Choices initiative, which wants to get workers in the area travelling in more sustainable ways.

The money for the project was given to the council as part of a £5m pot from the Department for Transport.

To be eligible for a grant, businesses must show they are committed to matching the grant by undertaking various activities, such as travel surveys and promoting sustainable transport.

Peter Lerner, the council's deputy director of strategy, infrastructure and planning, said: "Sustainable transport isn't just about big changes to the road systems or park and rides.

"Everyone can do their bit - a lot of people would like to walk or cycle to work, but there is often something that is holding them back.

"If businesses support their employees to travel in a more sustainable way, we all benefit from less pollution and less congestion."

Macsamillion - still putting its best foot forward and stepping into the future

MACSAMILLION is famous across the county, even the world, through its website for supplying only the very best in footwear and has graced Avenue 1 in Oxford's famous covered market for over forty years.

James MacLachlan, the founder, has a simple motto. "If you are not going forwards, you are going backwards." For James, 'forwards' includes expansion through their recently launched website and online store and the current expansion of their Foot Foundation service. Now opposite their existing ladies shop, the Foot Foundation has taken over what was the Jemini Florist unit, who have moved elsewhere in the covered market.

The new store features two, state-of-the-art, I-step digital foot scanners. I-step is a revolutionary, digital, foot scanning technology. Your feet are scanned to accurately measure your correct foot size and pressure sensors determine your arch type and pressure points of the foot. The system immediately recommends custom selected orthotics and the Foot Foundation consultants are able to advise on selected footwear most suited to you from an extensive range of quality, specialist footwear brands. These include Mephisto, Finn Comfort, Waldlaufer and Semler to name but a few.

This service can transform the lives of people who have been wearing ill-fitting shoes or have a medical need for orthotic insoles for corrective purposes and with referrals coming from both the NHS and Private Podiatrist's, it's already shown that the right fitting and balanced footwear can improve comfort for sufferers of bunions, misaligned spines, hips, knees and ankles. If your feet are in the correct position, you have a much greater chance of retaining and improving a correct posture.

Our Feet are one of the most neglected parts of our bodies and yet one of the hardest working. We all complain, from time to time, that our feet are 'killing us' and in truth, the impact on our health from badly fitting footwear can be truly enormous.

Foot health is improved greatly by well fitted footwear and the Foot Foundation service has taken that principle to new heights!

With comfort still in mind, there is a personal boot fitting service specifically designed to accommodate wide calves. There are some wonderfully designed boots from Dutch company, JJ Footwear. It is also intended, in the near future, to offer reflexology and podiatry to customers in private treatment rooms.

Yvonne Van Bommel and Mary-

Ann Price, both Managing Directors and buyers for the Company, visit footwear shows in Dusseldorf and Milan as well as in Britain, always searching for the best in quality and style.

In our Ladies shop footwear is widely sourced from Europe. The core lines feature ballet pumps and loafers, but every season sees the arrival of an exciting range of fashionable collections to name but a few Wolky, Peter Kaiser, Arche, HB shoes.

The men's shop has many English brands that feature Goodyear welted footwear the likes of Crockett & Jones, Church, Jeffrey West, Loakes and many more, the store has a loyal following of customers, who return time and time again for their favoured, tried and tested shoes. Many also love the highlights offered by the more fashionable Italian styles on offer.

Whatever your needs, be it style, quality, comfort, or indeed all three, Macsamillion can help you. The new Foot Foundation store is now open, so why not call in and try out the service for yourself or call to book a free appointment for a foot health appraisal.

Half marathon reveals Oxfam as lead charity

OXFAM has been confirmed as the lead charity for this year's Oxford Half Marathon, with hospice Helen & Douglas House named official local charity.

This year's race is on October 12, the fourth time the race will be held on the streets of Oxford.

Mel Taylor, charity director for Oxford Half Marathon Ltd, said: "We are delighted to announce two key Oxford-based charities for this year's race."

"This is the first step of our ambition to develop the race into one of the largest charity fundraisers in the south east."

Erica Dallimore, running events manager for Cowley-based Oxfam GB, said: "As an Oxford-based charity working globally to overcome poverty, this is a fantastic opportunity to engage the local community and raise vital funds for our work."

Poppy Hanbury, senior community and events fundraiser at Helen & Douglas House in Magdalen Road, added: "It's wonderful to be part of a local event which involves and benefits the local community."

Half marathon organisers are also inviting other local charities to become official partners ahead of the race, and have until May 30 to register their interest.

Downton actor visits hospital

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

DOWNTON Abbey star Jo Froggatt made a special visit to the John Radcliffe Hospital last week, joining a music therapy class for children.

Patients in the Bellhouse-Drayson Ward of the Children's Hospital, on Headley Way, Headington, played instruments and sung nursery rhymes and pop songs with music therapist Andy Stevens.

Mrs Froggatt's visit to the hospital was in celebration of the first 'Wear Rainbow Day', organised by Maidenhead-based children's charity Rosie's Rainbow Fund.

Carolyn Mayling set up the charity after her 11-year-old daughter Rosie suffered a fatal pulmonary haemorrhage in 2003.

Rosie's Rainbow Fund raises money for bereavement support, a parents therapy room at the John Radcliffe, music therapy and research.

Last Friday Mrs Mayling handed over a cheque of £500 to the hospital and presented nine-year-old Thomaz Lusby-

Roberts, who is blind and has Cerebral Palsy, with an iPad. Mrs Mayling said: "Rosie would just be so proud."

"It makes the whole thing worthwhile. It's a reason to go on."

Actress Mrs Froggatt joined Thomaz, three-year-old Chrislin Bose, who has bone cancer, and eight-year-old Summerlea

Burnett, who is recovering from a cardiac arrest, in music therapy.

The actress, who plays Anna Bates in the popular drama and is patron of the charity, said: "We started the day to raise awareness."

"It is wonderful to have music therapy and to help the funding of toys and arts and crafts materials that kids need for long stays in hospital."

Mr Stevens said he feels "privileged and honoured" to work with children.

"I see the wellness in them despite the illness," he said.

"They still communicate and it is therapeutic for their wellbeing and it affects them physically in being constructive."

The award winning John Lawson's Circus voted 'Best Small Circus', will make its return to Millets Farm Centre during the May Half-Term.

With an entirely human cast and featuring new acts and routines including Miss Monika from Hungary with her aerial skills, Miss Georgia from Romania on the aerial rope, Ross on the rola rola and no Circus would be complete without plenty of clowning around.

This enthralling show lasts an hour and is a great family experience not to be missed!

Date set for new town youth centre to open

HOPES are high that work will be finished this July on a new youth centre in Wallingford.

The £250,000 youth centre in Wigod Way is on the site of an abandoned and demolished church.

It will replace the former youth club in Clapcot Way and will also be home to a children's centre.

Oxfordshire County Council appointed charity Action for Children, who run about 200 centres throughout the country, in 2012 to work from the building.

By Jack Johnson

jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Jamie Baskeyfield, town clerk at Wallingford Town Council, said: "Our completion date is July 8 and we hope that our tenants will take occupation on August 1."

"It is still to be determined, but it is how we hope things will pan out."

The town council has put £89,000 into the project alongside grants and section 106 money from developers.

Bernard Stone, chairman of the Finance and Properties Subcommittee on the town council, added: "It's on programme. The town council has committed a lot of money to this so it is all coming together."

Action for Children spokesman Hugh Beal said: "We're very excited about the proposals."

County Council cuts led to the closure of the old centre in Clapcot Way and the town council worked with South Oxfordshire District Council to acquire the Wigod Way site.

The youth centre will be home to youth worker Martin Thompson and Action for Children.

Pupils taught fishing at reservoir

CHILDREN from two Oxford schools were among a group who learned all about fishing at Farmoor Reservoir.

The youngsters from Mabel Pritchard Special School, in Cuddesdon Way, and St Gregory the Great Catholic School, in Cricket Road, were among six who took part in the day on April 30.

Pupils took part in bug hunting, fly tying, fly casting and fly fishing, before learning about the reservoir and finishing with a cookery lesson.

The event was run by Fishing 4 Schools, The Angling Trust and Thames Water.

Charles Jardine, of Fishing 4 Schools, said: "It was inspirational to bring fishing to such a diverse group of people of all abilities and backgrounds, who had never even thought of trying fishing before."

"Everyone took part, including the teachers and carers."

Will Barnard, from Thames Water, said: "Farmoor Reservoir is nationally recognised as one of the finest fisheries in the UK."

"It's important that communities and young people have opportunities to experience this for themselves. There is more to Thames Water than supplying water and removing waste, and our reservoirs being used for angling and other sports is a brilliant example."

News Bites

Dog in TV ad

WITNEY: A dog has been chosen from more than 13,000 entries to star in Pets at Home's new advertising campaign.

Bruce, a beagle who lives with his owner Sue Jones in Witney, will feature in 'My Pet Moments', after he was filmed running behind Sue into their house.

Sue said: "We were so excited to hear the clip made it through to the final advert. Bruce is a beautiful dog and he deserves it."

Pool opening

WALLINGFORD: The Riverside pool is set to open on Saturday for the summer.

The town's Jubilee Splash Park for children and campsite is already in operation.

The Riverside pool, on the bank of the River Thames next to Wallingford Bridge, will be open from Saturday in time for the Bank Holiday until September 7.

Swimming costs £4.45 for adults, £2.85 for juniors and seniors and £13.40 for a family.

Teenage Kicks

PUNK rock group The Undertones, best known for their 1978 hit 'Teenage Kicks', will perform at Oxford's O2 Academy on Saturday.

The band got back together in 1999 after splitting up 16 years previously, and last year released 'An Introduction to The Undertones'.

Doors open at 6.30pm. For more information go to o2academyoxford.co.uk.

Comedy laugh

STAND-UP comedian Josh Widdicombe brings his latest tour 'Incidentally' to the Oxford Playhouse stage on Tuesday.

Josh has appeared on 'The Last Leg', 'Mock the Week' and '8 Out of 10 Cats'.

Tuesday's show starts at 7.30pm. For more details go to oxfordplayhouse.com.

Comic lecture

DANIEL BYE speaks about value in his comedy lecture, presented at Oxford's Pegasus Theatre from today until Saturday.

The show features bizarre facts and extraordinary stories, described as occasionally shambolic and often misguided, but a joy to watch.

For more information go to pegasustheatre.org.uk.

Sandy and Danny return

HIT musical Grease is retold by the Oxford Operatic Society in a brand new production at the New Theatre from Tuesday.

Grease gained notoriety with the popular 1978 film starring John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John.

And the songs from that film have recently been made available for

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

drama groups to use - something the Oxford Operatic Society is making the most of.

It means the society's performance will feature more than 20 songs, many with their own dance number.

"Rehearsals have been really good, but it's been very hard on the cast because there's so many songs," said show director Dave Crewe.

"But it's been thoroughly enjoyable because there's so much for the company to do, and you find with some shows there isn't as much as you'd like there to be.

"The nature of Grease is that it's all about rock and roll, and that encourages much more of a vibe with it and you can go with it how you want to."

The operatic society's adaptation of Grease concentrates more on the show's original story about how America changed culturally from the 1950s to 1960s. Whereas Grease the film focused on the love story between Danny and Sandy - although this remains a major part of the operatic society's production.

"Rock and roll and the advent of the teenager saw the start of the move into the liberal 1960s, and that's what the show is actually about," Dave added.

"We look at it much more from that angle as well as just a love story."

"Sandy is a metaphor for how America changed in the '50s when it was all repressed and conservative, into the '60s when it became far more liberal and enlightened, and much more about free love."

The first performance is on Tuesday, and runs until May 31. For more information, go to newtheatreoxford.org.uk.

Pirate Gran a treasure

THE adventures of Pirate Gran are brought to life at Didcot's Cornerstone Theatre on Sunday, in this swash-buckling children's production.

Gran is a little old lady who bakes and knits. It would be impossible to guess she is also a pirate if it wasn't for her wicked sense of humour and the

By Adam Flinn

adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

crocodile living under her bed.

The show is based on the Pirate Gran books by Geraldine Durrant, who began writing in 2007 after taking a month off work.

"I'd never really planned to write a book, but I saw a competition that the BBC were running to write a short story for children," said Geraldine.

"As I'd taken the month off, I thought I'd have a go - so I did and I won it!"

The show has been adapted for the stage by Scamp Theatre, who will be performing a musical version of the story.

Geraldine recently went to see the show for the first time with her grandchildren, and said: "It's just wonderful, I'm thrilled to see what they have done with it."

"I'd dreamed up Pirate Gran as a story which I used to tell my eldest grandchildren when they were little, so they've grown up with her and the books are dedicated to them."

"It was very special to go as a family to see it on stage."

"What they do is highly imaginative and there's lots of lovely little touches, like for example Gran's chair in her sitting room had three ordinary legs and one pirate peg leg."

"You find yourself looking round thinking 'I hadn't noticed that'. It's very clever, very stimulating to the imagination."

Sunday's show begins at 2pm, and is suited for children aged three years and over.

For booking details, go to cornerstone-arts.org.

ANHSO - THE RISE AND FALL OF OUR WOOD CULTURE - DR GABRIEL HEMERY

"Over the last 350 years the nature and health of our woodlands and treescapes have changed in step with their utility. Today, perhaps more so than in the last one hundred years, great sylvan opportunities lie ahead, and some significant challenges. Dr Hemery celebrates the legacy of Evelyn's 1664 Sylva, and looks to the future.

As a practising silvologist (forest scientist) Dr Gabriel Hemery has undertaken research in subjects ranging from the walnut-fruit forests of Kyrgyzstan, to rearing chickens in farm woodlands; authoring more than 70 scientific articles. He created a new research woodland in Oxfordshire, Paradise Wood, and has planted tens of thousands of trees in field trials across Britain. His first book, The New Sylva, was published by Bloomsbury in April 2014."

13 Jun 2014, 8pm Wallingford Town Hall CATHOLIC RECUSANCY IN OXFORDSHIRE

"By Tony Hadland. Recusants were people who, after the Reformation, refused to conform to the Church of England. This talk reveals the secretive survival of Catholicism in Oxfordshire (including former North Berkshire). A surprising number of key events in English post-Reformation Catholic history happened in the area. Examples will be given of surviving records and source of further information.

Visitors (£3) are most welcome.

ANHSO - OCEAN CIRCULATION AND CLIMATE - DR RENSKE GELDERLOOS

"The ocean plays a very important role in the Earth's climate system through storage and transport of heat, fresh water, and carbon. Dr Gelderloos will discuss the principle ocean circulation patterns and how they affect well known climatic phenomena such as El Niño and the hydrological cycle. Furthermore, as increasing greenhouse gas concentrations in the atmosphere affect the circulation in the ocean, this will feed back onto the climate system. Based on what we know about how the oceans affect the Earth's climate, what changes may we expect?"

Dr Gelderloos is a physical oceanographer interested in subpolar and polar oceans. After specialising in fluid dynamics during a BSc and MSc in Civil Engineering at the University of Twente (Netherlands), she studied deep water formation in the Labrador Sea at KNMI/ University of Utrecht for her PhD. She now work as a Postdoctoral Research Associate at the Department of Earth Sciences, studying ocean dynamics in the Canadian Arctic."

Richmond Letcombe Regis

Nurses and Carers Open Day at Richmond Letcombe Regis

Thursday 29th May, 6pm – 9pm and Saturday 31st May, 10am – 2pm

IMAGINE having a job where every day you can actually say 'I made a difference today'? Well if you are a nurse or carer this is something you could, and should, say to yourself every single day.

Those nurses and carers working within the care home industry have the added benefit of not only making a difference to patients' lives but also the benefit of building strong relationships with both the person they are caring for and their family.

The award-winning retirement village and care home operator Richmond Letcombe Regis are holding two open days on Thursday 29th May, 6pm – 9pm and Saturday 31st May, 10am – 2pm, especially for nurses and carers so that they can understand more about the role within a luxury care home.

Elisabeth Parker, Village Manager, commented "Nurses and carers often dismiss the thought of working in a care home environment in favour of working in a hospital. However, when people see the wonderful environment that you can work within and the amazing difference that you can make to someone's wellbeing, working in a care home becomes a very appealing proposition."

Throughout the open day qualified nurses and carers who are thinking about changing jobs will have the opportunity to look around the Richmond Letcombe Regis care home and speak to Elisabeth and her team to find out more about the role.

We spoke to a resident at Richmond Letcombe Regis who had spent time in hospital before coming to the care home. "All the nurses in the hospital were lovely, but they all seemed so busy. The nurses here are busy as well, but we always have time to chat and I look on them as my friends, not just carers."

So, if you are a qualified nurse or carer, or are perhaps thinking about a caring career, why not pop along to Richmond Letcombe Regis on either Thursday 29th or Saturday 31st May and find out more? For more information on the event please call either Elisabeth Parker or the Deputy Village Manager, Sharon Hunt, on 01235 773970 or visit www.richmond-villages.com/letcombe.

WIN a meal for two at new-look PizzaExpress Abingdon

PIZZAEXPRESS is celebrating the launch of its exciting new-look restaurant at Abingdon on 20 May by offering five fabulous prizes of a meal for two to the value of £40!

Located in a Grade II listed building in Stert Street, the restaurant boasts a beautiful al fresco dining area, perfect for the summer, as well as a separate dining area for parties.

Manager, Aga Candan, said, "We have a friendly and enthusiastic team who are looking forward to welcoming everyone to our beautifully refurbished restaurant over a delicious pizza."

PizzaExpress has been dishing up fresh, handmade pizza to Abingdon since 1996 and has a fantastic new menu. Its Leggera range includes skinny pizzas with fewer than 500 calories and the Superfood Salad is packed full of nutritious ingredients containing just 295 calories. PizzaExpress has also introduced gluten-free choices to its menu including a gluten-free pizza base.

For younger pizza-lovers, PizzaExpress' Piccolo menu is full of tasty choices including 'Create Your Own' pizza. And for budding chefs looking to celebrate a birthday, a Pizza Making Party will see them transformed into mini-chefs (or pizzaiolas) so they can stretch, toss and top their own pizza and play a game before sitting down to enjoy their culinary creations. So kids don't have all the fun, adult Pizza Making Parties can be arranged on request.

Closing date:

Friday, May 30, 2014

And the restaurant runs free visits for local primary schools, turning the kitchens into classrooms.

And they call it poppy love...

During the First World War, the blasted and bombed battlefields across Europe created ideal conditions for the poppy to flourish

IT WAS a sight which, in 1915, inspired Canadian Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae to write the well-known war poem In Flanders Fields, with poppies growing there 'row on row', and as such, this vivid red flower has become synonymous with the great loss of life and sacrifices made in war.

This year, to mark the centenary of the start of the First World War, poppy displays will rightly abound nationwide.

The Royal Botanic Garden Edinburgh is creating a poppy field to be in full bloom in late July, Gunby Hall and Gardens in Lincolnshire has its own poppy trail, and there's poppy planting at Sheffield Park in East Sussex (www.nationaltrust.org.uk) and beautiful displays at Dyrham Park near Bath.

Poppies will also feature heavily in Birmingham City Council's exhibit in the Great Pavilion at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show this year, while tens of thousands of poppies have also been sown by children, soldiers, civic leaders, community organisations, clergy and faith groups nationwide as a joint act of remembrance.

The field poppy or corn poppy, Papaver rhoeas, is the poppy of wartime remembrance. This annual flower can lie dormant for many years before germination which is then often triggered when the soil is disturbed. It's perfect planted in a sunny wildflower garden or a meadow where it will self-seed freely.

Throughout history, a new generation of corn poppies was germinated each year as land was ploughed and grain scattered. It is a plant relevant to many cultures - to the Egyptians it symbolised blood and rebirth, while the Romans hailed it as the sacred crop of Ceres.

Its family, papaveraceae, is relatively small, with less than 800 species, but the types vary greatly in size and colour. Among the largest are the flowers of P. orientale Goliath Group, appearing atop shoulder-high stems. The petals share the same tissue-paper look as their smaller cousins, yet poppy types range from the toughest hardy perennials to pretty annuals, from giants with tall spires such as P. pilosum, to ground-hugging alpinists. They are all followed by round decorative seedpods.

By far the most showy and most familiar in the garden is Papaver orientale, which adds dramatic highlights to early summer with their spectacular blooms. The typical oriental poppy is a hardy perennial which produces scarlet flowers with a black blotch at the bottom of each petal, but you can get other colours including pink, orange, white and plum. Stunning varieties include 'Mrs Perry', with large salmon-pink blooms and 'Patty's Plum', which is dark and dramatic.

Most named oriental poppies are sterile and can be propagated by root cuttings, while species poppies rely on seed to keep them going. P. somniferum, the opium poppy enjoyed for its ornamental value, is a prolific self-seeder, but it's best to save some of its seeds to sow where you actually want them to be.

All poppies have a dainty appearance but many don't need staking. However, you must remove the dead blooms to prolong the flowering season. Good companions to oriental poppies include the frothy flowers of Gypsophila paniculata, penstemon and agapanthus.

Most poppies prefer sun and moist soil but several, including the Welsh poppy, Meconopsis cambrica, prefer stretches of woodland in dappled shade, where they colonise ground between bluebells and wood anemones.

So while the field poppy will always remain one of the most powerful and poignant images of remembrance, its wider family in all its glorious colours and forms has earned itself a well-deserved place in the British garden.

The Honda Civic scooped an award for milage rates at Honest John car website Drivers vote Honda top car

THE Honda Civic 1.6 i-DTEC was awarded the best Real MPG vehicle this month at the Honest John car awards for 2014.

The awards for popular car website Honest John asked drivers to submit how many miles their cars actually do to the gallon and collated more than 50,000 entries, covering all major manufacturers and models.

The Honda Civic scored the best total for the past 12 months, with an impressive average of 66.2mpg.

Honest John's Real MPG calculator was launched in June 2011 to offer a real world alternative to official quoted MPG figures.

The website also rated the 1.6 i-DTEC engine as best small diesel on the market.

Dan Harrison, editor of honest-john.co.uk said: "We rate the Honda 1.6 i-DTEC engine as the best small diesel on the market with its refined nature and impressive performance. And further enhancing its appeal is its real world fuel economy."

"Figures submitted to Real MPG over the last 12 months show a realistic economy figure of 66.2mpg."

REVIEW: Honda Civic 1.6 i-DTEC

By Katriona Ormiston

@writeonmotoring

"At a time when running costs are a key factor in choosing a car, the Civic 1.6 i-DTEC makes a very strong case for itself."

Leon Brannan, head of cars at Honda UK, said: "This award once again confirms the incredible efficiency of the Civic 1.6 i-DTEC and the reputation of its light but powerful engine as the best small diesel on the UK market."

"With ratings based on the experiences of thousands of everyday drivers, these figures show just how the Civic performs in real-world conditions."

The Honda Civic combines fuel economy and performance – emitting 94 g/km of CO₂ with a powerful 120PS.

The engine was the first to be launched in Europe under Honda's environmental programme called Earth Dreams Technology.

The Best Real MPG award came hot on the heels of Honest John naming Honda as the top performing manufacturer for MoT pass rates.

*Example based on Mirage 3 manual. This Alternatives PCP finance plan is only available to customers aged 18 years and over, subject to status through Finance Mitsubishi, 116 Cockfosters Rd, Barnet, EN4 0DY. Indemnities may be required. Finance Mitsubishi is part of Lloyds Bank Asset Finance. Your regular monthly repayments are low because it is the nature of a PCP product that a significant proportion of the amount of credit/charges are payable at the end of the contract by one large final repayment. The finance plan figures are based upon a max permitted annual mileage of 10,000, excess mileage is charged at 9p per mile. The Guaranteed Future Value (GFV) is subject to condition and mileage payable unless you choose to exercise your Goods Return Option, in which case it is subject to the vehicle being returned on time, in good condition (fair wear and tear accepted), within the permitted max mileage and all payments having been made. Offer is only applicable in the UK (excludes NI, CI & I.O.M) and may be amended or withdrawn at any time. Offer available between 1st April to 30th June 2014. Mitsubishi deposit contribution only applies to the Mirage 3 manual model purchased on Alternatives PCP. 2. This finance plan is only available through Finance Mitsubishi, 116 Cockfosters Road, Barnet, EN4 0DY and is subject to status to customers aged 18 and over. Finance Mitsubishi is part of Lloyds Bank Asset Finance. This offer requires a 20% minimum deposit and the interest rate is better than other high street lenders. Indemnities may be required. 3. Over 63mpg achieved on all Mirage models. Combined range fuel consumption from 65.7mpg to 68.9mpg. Fuel figures shown are official EU test figures, to be used as a guide for comparative purposes and may not reflect real driving results.

Mirage range fuel consumption in mpg (l/100km): Urban 56.5 - 61.4 (5.0 - 4.6), Extra Urban 72.4 - 78.5 (3.9 - 3.6), Combined 65.7 - 68.9 (4.3 - 4.1), CO2 Emissions 100 - 95g/km.

Working for local wildlife

Location: Your local area

Closing date: 06/06/2014

Do you have an interest in your local wildlife and environment? Do you enjoy meeting people? Then we would love to hear from you.

The Berks, Bucks & Oxon Wildlife Trust is looking for outgoing people to promote our work and raise support through membership recruitment at people's homes. The role offers significant flexibility on a part-time basis (typically 3 - 5 days per week). No hard selling is required and full training is provided.

The role offers the potential to earn between £250 and £450 a week on a commission-based package, with minimum wage guaranteed.

Coach Burnell hails comeback

LONDON Welsh head coach Justin Burnell praised his "special breed" of players after the Exiles booked their place in the Greene King IPA Championship final with a pulsating semi-final victory over Leeds Carnegie.

Fly-half Gordon Ross landed what proved to be the match-winning penalty, securing a 29-20 win, 60-58 on aggregate, and setting the stage for a final against Bristol Rugby.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The Dragons were staring defeat in the face, but their determination saw them overcome a 13-point deficit in the last 12 minutes, thanks to tries from Seb Stegmann and Ollie Stedman and Ross' late penalty.

"There's a special breed here," said coach Burnell.

"The way they have been brought up is the way I was brought up."

"You've got to work hard for everything in life nowadays and I think that is what they proved."

At half-time Welsh led the match 11-7, trailing Leeds by three points on aggregate, and after Ross and Leeds' Alex Lozowski exchanged penalties the tie was turned on its head.

Carl Kirwan was sent to the sin-bin and Leeds took full advantage with Lozowski converting Charlie Beech's try, before the latter added a further three points.

Despite being a man down, Welsh continued to press and Kirwan's return from the bin coincided with Stegmann going over in the corner on 79 minutes.

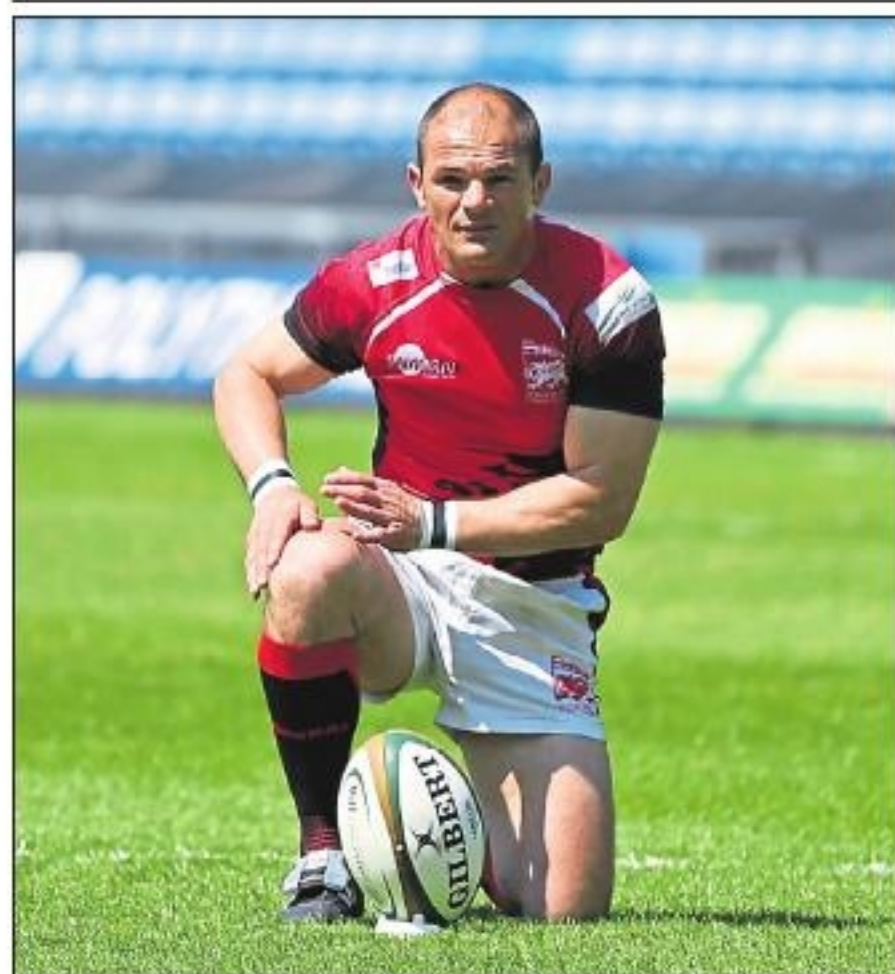

Ross did well to convert the try, putting the Exiles into the ascendancy, and minutes later Stedman found the whitewash to cut the deficit to one point.

The Exiles forced themselves within range and after Leeds were penalised on the floor, Ross stepped up to complete an extraordinary comeback.

Centre Seb Jewell said: "We don't perform and this is it. We never play with these boys, we don't see them again because boys are moving on, but it's a special bunch here."

The first leg of the final will be played at the Kassam Stadium next Wednesday evening. Kick-off is at 7.45pm.

Ross: 'We hate losing'

VETERAN fly-half Gordon Ross said London Welsh's dramatic semi-final comeback was down to the fact that he and his team-mates simply hate losing.

Ross, 36, who struggled for most of the afternoon with the boot, kicked what turned out to be the match-winning penalty to secure a 29-20 second leg win.

The Exiles will now face Bristol Rugby in the Greene King IPA Championship final, with the first leg to be played at the Kassam Stadium on May 28.

Ross said: "There's guys out there who have been around the block a couple of times and we don't like losing."

"Justin Burnell has created that culture and we just dug in."

"It was obviously disappointing personally from the boot, but fortunately we got through it by the skin of our teeth."

Head coach Burnell said he never doubted the former Scotland international's kicking ability.

"He's a quality player, everyone has a bad day," said Burnell. "Gordon is Gordon, he was always going to kick it."

"People around me said 'shall we kick for the corner', I said 'no he'll kick it' and he did."

Constable leaves U's after six year stint

Pepperell falls back following strong start

A THIRD round score of 79 dropped Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell out of contention at last weekend's Spanish Open, having led after the first day.

Pepperell started the tournament with a four under par 68, which put him one shot clear of the rest of the field.

A second round 71 put Pepperell in a tie for second place on five under par, one behind the Belgian Thomas Pieters.

But it was the third round where the damage was done, as two double bogeys, six bogeys and just three birdies contributed to a score of 79 to drop into a tie for 33rd.

Pepperell was able to post a par 72 round on the fourth day on Sunday, which elevated his position to a tie for 24th.

His final score of two over par was six behind tournament winner Miguel Angel Jimenez, who became the oldest player to win on the European Tour at the age of 50.

Pepperell will now be looking ahead to the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth this weekend, where he spectacularly finished in a tie for sixth last year.

Smith rounds out top-10 at French GP

OXFORD MotoGP rider Bradley Smith was unable to capitalise on a strong start, eventually finishing the French Grand Prix at Le Mans in 10th position.

Smith started 10th, but jumped up to fifth off the start, and hassled the top four as he attempted to progress further.

He was soon shuffled back into eighth before becoming involved in a battle with Andrea Dovizioso and Aleix Espargaro in the closing stages, dropping back to 10th as a result.

"I made a great start and managed to go around the outside of the first corner and recover several positions," said Smith.

"But already by turn three I knew that my lack of side grip would probably affect my race.

"However, I still gave it my all during qualifying and the race, but all weekend we were not as strong as we hoped to be."

Smith is ninth in the standings with 34 points, 94 behind championship leader Marc Marquez, who has won every race this season so far.

JAMES Constable has turned down Oxford United's offer of a new contract and has signed for Conference side Eastleigh on a two-year deal.

The 29-year-old was offered a new deal after his contract ran out at the end of the season but rejected the terms, it was announced yesterday.

Constable, who netted 106 times for United after joining from Shrewsbury Town in 2008, leaves the Kassam Stadium just one goal short of equalling the club's all-time scoring record.

Nicknamed 'Beano' by United's fans, Constable also scored United's second goal in the 3-1 win over York City in the Conference Play-Off Final at Wembley Stadium in 2010.

He said: "I have absolutely loved my time at the club and would like to thank everyone for making my time there so special. The fans have been unbelievable and I can't thank them enough for everything.

"The club has been a massive part of my life for the last six years and it's sad to be leaving, but now I am looking forward to the next stage of my career."

United's head coach Gary Waddock added: "James has been a great servant to this club and a pleasure to work with.

"We respect his decision and wish him well as he moves on to a fresh challenge."

Eastleigh won promotion to the Conference Premier last season and are managed by Richard Hill, who once played for United.

Hill was understandably delighted to secure Constable's services in the new deal.

He said: "I've spent the past two-and-a-half weeks speaking to James and telling him all about what we are striving to achieve here.

"On the three occasions we've met, and during numerous telephone conversations, the subject of money has never been raised."

Hill added: "In truth, James was keen to stay at Oxford and overhaul the club's scoring record; a feat that after six years of committed service there he was desperate to achieve.

"He was initially holding out in the hope that Oxford would offer him fair terms to stay and do that. Oxford's loss, though, is definitely our gain."

Clarke and Whing set for pre-season injury lay-off

OXFORD United have been hit by a double injury blow after it was revealed Andy Whing and Ryan Clarke require operations to resolve troublesome injuries.

The club confirmed earlier this week that Whing, 29, and Clarke, 32, are both likely to miss pre-season.

Whing, who has had an injury-hit season, will go under the knife this week for an operation on his hip.

Meanwhile, Clarke, United's player of the season, will have an operation on his foot and is likely to miss the first month of next season.

Manager Gary Waddock said it was a "shame" to see two experienced players on the injury list.

"They are both long-term injuries that need to be resolved," he said. "Having the operations early in the summer will give them both a little extra recovery time.

"You don't want to set time scales on these sort of things, but they are good pros and we know they will work hard and look to get back as soon as possible."

Waddock added: "In Whing's case we have Danny Rose, Jon Meades and Josh Ruffels competing for midfield places and Johnny Mullins will be back in pre-season and can play that holding role as well."

Clarke's injury will allow 20-year-old Max Crocombe an opportunity to break into the first team.

Ackling given new deal

WANTAGE Town have announced that manager Gary Ackling will remain with the club next season, following their promotion to the Southern League Division One South and West.

The Freds finished top of the Hellenic Premier last season, and Ackling has been retained alongside assistant manager Andy Lyne.

Club chairman Tony Woodward said: "I have great confidence in our appointed management team, which delivers both continuity and higher level experience."

Saints stay unbeaten

OXFORD Saints have kept their position at the top of the American Football Central Conference, after a 14-0 victory against Leicester Falcons.

The first half was very much a defensive battle, but Saints were able to break the Falcons courtesy of a James Ferrigno touchdown.

Stephen Bentley added to the score in the fourth quarter with a touchdown of his own, for a final 14-0 result.

They next play Peterborough Saxons at home on June 1.

Rugby win

OXFORD Rugby League won an entertaining match against South Wales Scorpions on Sunday, beating the basement side 40-24.

It means that Oxford are fifth in the Championship 1 standings with 12 points from their opening seven games, 10 behind league leaders Hunslet.

Oxford return to action on Sunday, as they travel to Hemel Stags for a 2.30pm start.

BOTTAS READY FOR MONACO

• Valtteri Bottas has scored points at all five races in 2014 so far (Picture courtesy of Williams Martini Racing)

PRACTICE gets underway today for the Monaco Grand Prix, with Williams Martini Racing drivers Felipe Massa and Valtteri Bottas hoping for another points haul.

Bottas has picked up points at all five races so far this season and is seventh in the F1 championship standings as a result, with 34 points.

The Finn came 12th in his first race at the principality last year, but will be hoping for more from his second outing.

"Qualifying in Monaco is the most important of the season as the design of the circuit makes it very hard to overtake in the race," said Bottas.

"Strategy is also important in the race as you want to make sure that no time or positions up.

"I am really confident driving there now that I have experience, and so am looking forward to the race.

"It's also the closest thing I will have to a home grand prix as I live in Monaco, so it will be nice to go from home."

Massa had a disastrous weekend at the last race in Spain after struggling with tyre grip to finish 13th, and will hoping to get his season back on track this weekend.

He retired from the race at Monaco last year following a sizeable crash, but he did manage to finish on the podium at the track in 2008.

Massa said: "The track is amazing and steeped in history, and we will need good stability for the circuit as it's so tight and traction is more important than top speed.

"The barriers are close and it takes time getting used to driving right up against them - sometimes you can even touch them and still do a good lap.

"Monaco is a special place. There are no other tracks like it on the calendar and that makes us enjoy it even more."

First and second practice takes place today, with third practice and qualifying on Saturday and the race on Sunday.
